Alois 2022 Falanghina Caulino

Campania, Campania

White wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2023 - 2025

The 2022 Falanghina Caulino is understated, wafting up with honeyed florals, ground ginger and wet stones. It's soft and round, almost oily in feel, with crisp acidity to contrast as ripe orchard fruits gently soothe the senses. This leans a bit toward the tropical spectrum through the finale while remaining nicely balanced by salty mineral tones. It's a total pleasure to taste.

Eric Guido. Tasting date: April 2023
