Alois 2005 TREBULANUM CASAVECCHIA

Campania, Campania

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2013 - 2017

The 2005 Trebulanum Casavecchia is a deeply-colored, full-bodied red imbued with the essence of smoke, ash, minerals, game, ripe cherries, wild herbs and French oak, all of which come together in a wine of unusual complexity. This dark, brooding beauty reveals tons of depth and nuance in a compelling expression of the Casavecchia grape and Campanian terroir.

Antonio Galloni, April 2009
